WHY CHOOSE BEASLEY NATIONAL SOCCER SCHOOL?

Beasley National Soccer School is a specifically designed and customized program to give both individuals and teams a distinct advantage over their competitors. By attending this camp each camper will be exceptionally prepared to meet the challenges of a High School or Club schedule. This camp is open to individuals, club, and high school boys teams.

Tactics - Campers will be split into teams under the instruction of a licensed, professional and/or college-level coach. This coach will analyze each player during the week teaching these players how to maximize their talents with offensive and defensive tactical training.

Technique - Playing and practicing three times a day gives each camper a great deal more ball contact than you could otherwise expect. Their coach will put an emphasis on the progression of individual skills that will lead to improved team development.

Fitness - The extensive training/playing regimen during the duration of the camp builds a base of fitness that the individual players would never achieve alone.

GET TO KNOW DaMarcus BEASLEY

DaMarcus Beasley, a remarkable two-way player, possesses lightning speed, quick feet and intelligent defensive instincts.

In March 1999, at 16 years and 10 months of age, he became the youngest player to sign a Major League Soccer contract. During his MLS stint with the Chicago Fire, DaMarcus was the first player under the age of 21 to be voted to the MLS BEST XI list. In addition, he was named one of World Soccer Magazine's "Top 100 Rising Stars" in the world! After four years with the Chicago Fire, DaMarcus began his international career in a multi-million dollar transfer to PSV Eindhoven in the Dutch league of Holland. His debut dream season with PSV was capped by capturing the Domestic Double, winning the Dutch Eredivisie title and Amstel Cup. DaMarcus continued his professional career in Europe playing on loan for Manchester City of the English Premier League. In the summer of 2007 with multiple clubs vying for him, his rights were sold to the Glasgow Rangers of the Scottish Premier League, where he made an impact upon arrival. In addition to his club commitments, DaMarcus was a star player for the U.S. National team. Exploits for club and country made him a finalist for the 2005 U.S. Soccer Male Athlete of the Year. He played a key role in the USA's qualification for the 2006 FIFA World Cup. He displayed his prowess by scoring four goals, which tied him for third highest number of GOALS scored by a U.S. Player. DaMarcus will again be asked to lead the U.S. Team in World Cup 2010.

I'm so proud and excited to introduce the Beasley National Soccer School. I enjoy playing for my country on the U.S. National Team. In addition, I am fortunate to be playing for the Glasgow Rangers, one of the top Futbol Clubs in Europe. I am living my dream and I would like to share my experiences and make a difference in today's footballer. Be sure to keep your eye on my website (www.Beasleynationalsoccerschool.com) for additional information and special added prizes, guests and appearances at all the camps. There is a lot of excitement in store at the Beasley National Soccer School camps this summer. I look forward to seeing you there!
